Steinspark
Biergarten and Food Court

Beer Bar

Steinspark
Biergarten and Food Court

All published prices include 6% Michigan sales taxes.

Beer on Tap

Radeberger Pilsner — $ 7.00 for 14 oz / $ 14.00 for 34 oz

One of Germany's most popular lagers has a golden color and is mildly hopped. 23 IBU, 4.8 % ABV

Hofbräuhaus Dunkel — $ 7.00 for 14 oz / $ 14.00 for 34 oz

Being the first beer brewed by the famous Bavarian Hofbräuhaus. Since 1589, this amber ale can be enjoyed all day long. 23 IBU, 5.5 % ABV

Rotating Tap — Changes frequently

Gaffel Kölsch — $ 7.00 for 14 oz / $ 14.00 for 34 oz

A light yellow ale with a prominent but not extreme hoppiness, brewed since 1908 in the shadow of the famous Dom Cathedral in Cologne. 25 IBU, 4.8 % ABV

Paulaner Munich Helles — $ 7.00 for 14 oz / $ 14.00 for 34 oz

Clear and sparkling in the glass with mild, elegant malts and a soft hint of hops. This pure Bavarian lifestyle. 20 IBU, 4.9 % ABV

House Radler — $ 5.00 for 14 oz / $ 10.00 for 34 oz

Radeberger Pilsner mixed with lemonade

Beer from the bottle

Erdinger Weissbier — $ 9.00

Crystal-clear with an inviting frothy head, this lively wheat beer specialty features fruity-fresh aromas.
16.9 oz. 13 IBU, 5.3 % ABV

Bell's Two Hearted IPA — $ 6.00

Our local flagship IPA, 12 oz, 55 IBU, 7.0 % ABV

Erdinger non-alcoholic — $ 6.00

For the alcohol conscious customer that does not want to miss the flavor of beer, 11.2 oz

Hofbräuhaus Hefeweizen — $ 9.00

Finished in the bottle like a fine wine, this traditional Bavarian wheat beer from Germany's oldest brewery (since 1040) combines wheat and yeast aromas with mild bitter hops. The invigorating carbon dioxide ensures its typical liveliness. 16.9 oz, 14 IBU, 5.1 % ABV

Schöfferhofer Hefeweizen Grapefruit Radler — $ 6.00

A modern day 'Radler', half beer, half juice. Great as a low alcohol sweet thirst quencher.
15 oz, 12 IBU, 2.5 % ABV

Wine

Dr. Loosen Dry Riesling — $ 9.00

A very fruity dry white with some earthy undertones and noticeable acidity. Grown in the Mosel region of Germany.

Leese-Fitch Chardonnay — $ 9.00

A typical dry Chardonnay from the Sonoma region in California. Aromas of creamy baked apples, hints of citrus and lingering toasty oak finish.

Crane Lake White Zinfandel — $ 7.00

Light pink, medium sweet wine with floral and tropical aromas. Made with grapes from the Napa and Sonoma regions in California

La Playa Merlot — $ 9.00

A dry red grown in the Colchagua Valley of Chile. Aromas of plums, blackberries and a hint of toasted oak with a good balance and a soft finish.

Tapiz Cabernet Sauvignon — $ 12.00

Ruby red and dry with spicy aromas, notes of red fruit and minerals. Grown in the famous Mendoza region of Argentina.

Hard Seltzers and Ciders

White Claw, various flavors, 16.9 oz — $ 7.00

Vandermill Honey Crisp Cider, 12 oz — $ 6.00

Non-alcoholic Drinks

Bottled water	$ 2.00
Lemonade	$ 2.00
Classic Coca Cola, Diet Coke, Sprite	$ 3.00
LeCroix Sparkling water Various flavors	$ 3.00